NUMBER 18. MAY 3, 1907, NORWAY, MAINE. VOLUME XXXVIII

Norway Municipal Court.

Jesse S. Estes of Woodstock, a boy about 15 years old, was given a hearing before Judge William F. Jones, Monday, on the charge of breaking and entering the store of A. Dudley & Co. at Bryant's Pond. The court found cause to hold him and he gave bail to the amount of $200 for his appearance at the Supreme court.

Frank Tay'or was arrested by Officer George F. Hathaway, Wednesday evening, in an intoxicated condition and taken to South Paris. Thursday morning he was brought before Judge W. F. Jones and sentenced to pay $5 and costs, amounting to about $14, which he paid and was discharged.

Gould Academy, 11; Norway High, 3.

Saturday afternoon the Norway High school base ball team suffered defeat at the hands of the boys from Gould Academy. It was as the score indicates a loosely played game. The Norway boys couldn't hit.

Calef did good work in the first four innings but weakened in the fifth. Bickford had no control and many hits were secured. Hathaway, Laselle and Thompson did good work.

Roberston did good work for Gould and was well supported by team except DeCoster and Bowker. The good work of the team was due to the excellent coaching of Bearce. The score:

Young Men's Congress.

Friday evening an interesting session of the Young Men's Congress was held. The following officers were elected:

Speaker—Ralph I. Trask.
Vice Speaker—Arthur B. F. Hart.
Clerk—Horatio B. Hammond.
Treasurer—Geo. C. Leavitt.
Sergt.-at-arms—Lee W. Templeton.

Woman's Suffrage was the leading question discussed and the final vote resulted in favor of the bill.

It was decided to hold a banquet at the Beal's House the last of May. Ralph I. Trask, Harry Downing and B. S. Rideout are the committee in charge.

Auction Livery Stock.

The entire livery stock of the John M. Cummings large stable, back of the Beal's Hotel, Norway, will be sold at public auction, Thursday, May 9th. The property consists of horses, carriages, sleighs and all kinds of livery paraphernalia. This stock has been bought by H. F. & E. E. Andrews, who are to sell it out in this way.

Sale starts at 9 a. m. on harnesses and carriages, horses sold at 1 p. m. There will be two auctioneers, no let up at noon, sale positive rain or not. None of the property will be sold at private sale before the auction, so people attending from a distance can be sure of having a chance with the people living near. This is one of the largest livery stocks in Maine. Read the advertisement in this paper and the posters.

Samuel Hayden and son Carl of Haverhill, Mass., came to Norway, Saturday. Mr. Hayden returned Monday but Carl remains visiting.

A plate over 200 years old was brought across the big pond by Wm. Bolton on his return to this country. It has been in his family for many generations.

"Rebecca's Triumph" at Concert Hall on the evening of May 15th by the members of S. S. class No. 7. This class is under the charge of Chas. F. Ridlon.

George A. Brown of East Stoneham was in town Monday. He says the smelt in Lower Stone pond are done "running," and that they were larger this year than ever before. Mr. Brown is to bring us over bears' oil the next time he comes to Norway. The aforesaid brute's oil is good to soften the quills of hedgehogs when found in dogs. We have dogs, seven of them, and He who knows all things can tell the number of hedgehogs in our possession, we can't. Their quills kill dogs. Bears' oil kills quills, hence the necessity for this antidote at the Farm.

"It's so seldom I have money I realy don't know whether I've got any or not This don't bother me any. That I don't have money may plague my creditors but it don't me, I let them do the walking." This was the strain of soliloquy which passed through the mind of O. M. Cummings, while listening to the Odd Fellows' annual sermon last Sunday morning. Mr. Cummings put on his "other suit," which he had not worn since last Thanksgiving Day, and while in church he found money in the inside coat pocket—sixteen dollars in bills and some silver. He remembered putting it there.

Chapman Concert.

Don't miss it! Tuesday night, May 28th, at Opera House, at eight o'clock. Hans Kronold, the famous and favorite violon-cellist of New York, will play his soulful instrument. No cellist in this country can excel Kronold in his marvellous technique and soulful expression. He ranks to-day with the great masters of the world, and it will indeed be a treat to hear him play. Miss Aline Glass has a contralto voice of exceptional beauty. She spent the winter in New York, where she gained much praise for her beautiful singing. Mr. Thomas Henderson is well known in Maine, and his delightful songs have charmed his audiences. He will sing ballads and popular favorites, which will please the most highly cultured ear, as well as appeal to the listener who "does not know music" but likes a good thing. Mr. Chapman as everyone knows is a wizard in music, whether at the piano, or holding his stick over orchestra and chorus. As he will personally accompany these artists, the musical excellence of the programme is assured. No one can afford to miss this musical evening brought to our town within our reach at popular prices. Besides the cause is such a worthy one, and we are all proud of our own chorus, and the part they hold in the great Annual Festivals, and we are glad to add our contribution to the fund which is necessary to pay their local expenses. Let everybody buy at least one ticket and all go and enjoy this great musical treat.

A Shrub from Ireland.

William Bolton has returned from his trip to his old home in Ireland where he has spent the winter visiting relatives and friends, whom he had not visited for several years. He arrived in Norway on Friday.

He brought the ADVERTISER a curious shrub the, "butcher's broom," that he got on an estate in Ireland where he used to work. The shrub has a beautiful shade of green leaves and grows about three feet tall. It is an evergreen, and we look forward to seeing the green leaves growing above the snow on the lawn at Round Pond where it has been planted,—provided it lives and thrives so far from home and in a strange country. Mr. Bolton returned with the opening of the season here in order to resume his work as landscape gardener.

Store Sold Out at Auction.

G. A. Kenerson is to close out his stock of goods with an auction commencing at 1 30 o'clock and continuing till midnight, Saturday, May 4th, at the Otto Schnuer store. His stock consists of crockery, glassware, and goods for a variety store; also men's clothing will be sold. All the goods remaining will be sold.

A portion of the floor at the postoffice has been relaid. Morrill Fuller did the work.

Norway friends will be interested in the announcement of the engagement of Eda V. Frost and Leroy D. Keene, both formerly of this town. Their marriage will occur in the near future.

The ladies of the Universalist society will meet with Mrs. Moses P. Stiles, Tuesday evening at 7 30, to decide on serving dinners at the county fair. A large attendance is desired.

W. L. Merrill has moved his business into his new studio on Deering street. The "sitting room" which he built onto the studio he has occupied in the Noyes block was moved to the new studio. Geo. Wood did the work.

Henry J. Hamlin of Portland was in town this week enroute to North Waterford. He made complimentary remarks about the change in the looks of the street where the over-head signs had been taken down. His name is still on the sign over E. F. Bicknell's, tho' he is not now in business here.

The Mercy class of the Baptist Sunday school gave their teacher, Mrs. C. L. DeCosta, a birthday suprise party, Tuesday evening. She was presented with a sum of money. The evening was spent in a general social way. Mercy Millett, the former teacher of the class and in whose honor the class was named, was here and attended the party. Miss Millett returned to Hanover, Mass., Wednesday, where she is caring for her brother's, Robert N. Millett's, children and his home.

Masquerade Ball.

The masquerade ball at the Opera House Wednesday evening was well attended. The grand march started at 8.30 led by E. J. Boucher and Clara Whalen. There were about 50 couples on the floor. Here and there were seen a few dressed in costume, a few of hobo type, a Chinese and a few of other types that would be difficult of description. Stearns' orchestra furnished music. Capt. J. W. Nash was floor manager, assisted by a competent force of aids. Ice cream and cake were served at intermission. A goodly number of spectators was in the gallery.

Ray A. Chapman of Milo is visiting relatives here. He has been teaching the past winter and will teach in the Lagrange grammar school the coming term, which opens next week.

South Paris grammar school second team played the Paris Hill team at Paris Hill, Saturday, and were defeated by a score of 6 to 5 in a ten inning contest. "Dutchy" Penfold struck out 14 men.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Hilton, who have been at Bingham most of the winter, were here a few days last week. They will not break up their home here at present, though they may not live here any more. Mr. Hilton is in the accident insurance business in Somerset county.

Rev. Thomas N. Kewley, the new pastor of the Methodist church, occupied the pulpit here for the first time on Sunday. He and Mrs. Kewley were entertained at George D. Robertson's over Sunday, and will be entertained by others of their people until the parsonage is ready for occupancy.

About sixty Odd Fellows and thirty Rebekahs attended the annual Odd Fellows' sermon at the Universalist church, Sunday afternoon. The singing was by the regular choir of the church. The sermon was by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Little, and was based upon the friendship of David and Jonathan. Mr. Little reviewed the principles of the order at length, and recounted the duties and the benefits of Odd Fellowship. Besides the orders represented there was quite a good audience present.

Rev. A. K. Baldwin has been obliged to give up his plan of doing mission work at New Haven, Conn., while continuing his studies, as he has found that the work is more than can be done by a man in his condition of health and allow him to do any studying. At the close of his pastorate here he will take a vacation of a few months, and then endeavor to find an opportunity to continue his studies in preparation for his work.

Thursday evening, Mt. Mica lodge of Odd Fellows observed the anniversary of the order with appropriate exercises, Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and a few invited guests being present. James R. Townsend of Augusta, deputy grand master of the Grand Lodge, was present and gave an interesting address. George W. Haskell presided at the exercises and remarks were also made by Rev. J. H. Little, Rev. J. W. Chesbro, Rev. E. W. Pierce and A. E. Shurtleff. Music and reading by some of the best local talent completed an excellent program. There was a good attendance.

The village corporation assessors have got far enough along with their work so that we can have some idea what our village advantages are going to cost this year. The total valuation of the village corporation is $652,320 00, against $614,548.00 last year. The increase is principally in real estate. Number of polls, 430. The total tax assessed, including $300.00 appropriated at special meetings this year, is $8,365.00, against $2,145.14 last year. Consequently we shall pay this year at the rate of four and seven-tenths mills, as against two and eight-tenths last year. The town assessors are not yet far enough along to fix the rate of the town tax, but it is certain that it will be higher than in 1906.

Herbert Perkins has returned from Boston.

When You Want Pure White Lead, Get It

Probably there is no other article of commerce subjected to so much adulteration and misrepresentation as White Lead.

Out of 18 brands of "White Lead" recently analyzed by the Government Agricultural Experiment Station of North Dakota, 5 contained absolutely no White Lead, 5 less than 15% of White Lead, and only 3 over 90% of White Lead.

There is, however, a way to be certain of the purity and genuineness of the White Lead you buy, and that is to insist upon

Prize Numerical Enigma.

The whole, composed of 31 letters, is a quotation from Elizabeth Akers Allen.

3, 18, 26, is sensitively timid.
5, 24, 8, 17, is to boil slowly.
7, 19, 15, 16, is repose.
9, 13, 6, 1, 12, is a fixed look.
27, 25, 2, 10, is to blossom.
28, 29, 22, 20, is to lead.
30, 4, 14, 21, is to shed tears.
31, 11, 6, 23, is not far distant.

The quotation consists of six words and may be found in "Forest Buds from the Woods of Maine"

Send the answer to PUZZLER, Box 55, West Bethel, Maine, and inclose a two-cent stamp. To each and every one complying with this request on or before May 20th, I will send a copy of a magazine containing a puzzle department for the solving of which cash prizes are given every month.

The answer to the enigma in the ADVERTISER of April 5th is: "In life, in death and light, all are in God's care.

I here give a list of those who sent the correct solution before April 20th:

Mrs. H. S. Robertson, West Sumner.
Florence R. Garner, Kezar Falls.
Mary E. Hastings, Fryeburg.
Mrs. H. L. Curtis, West Sumner.
E. W. Edwards, Oxford.
Umbagog, Upton.
Effie F. Peverley, Bryant's Pond.
Mrs. H. H. Buck, Buckfield.
Mrs. A. H. Witham, Denmark.
Guy F. Bowker, Oxford.
Mrs. A. H. Bryant, West Paris.
Donald Partridge, Norway Lake.
Mrs. S. W. Bradley, Nashua, N. H.
Rebecca Baker, Passumpsic, Vt.

For the small sum of twenty-five cents any reader of the ADVERTISER can join the Northwestern Puzzler's League and receive the Farmer's Wife for one year, by sending that amount in stamps or silver to Laura E. Lent, Stacy, Minn. The Farmer's Wise has a department of original prize puzzles every month. Those who desire to take Farm Young Folks, in which I have a page of "Popular Posers for Puzzlers," can receive the magazine a whole year by sending fifteen cents in stamps to the writer of this enigma. I hope to soon see a much larger number of active Oxford county puzzle writers and solvers.

Useful Hints.

To prevent a lamp from smoking soak a new lamp wick two or three hours in vinegar. Dry well before using. If you follow this recipe your trouble with your lamps will cease. Lamp wicks in lanterns or carriage lamps that are not in daily use should be treated in this way.

Very strong tea will stop bleeding from a cut.

Equal parts of milk and lukewarm water is a good solution for sponging plants.

Spoons are sometimes used with firm puddings, but forks are the better style.

A little vinegar in polish will be found to obviate the dead oily look so often noticed after cleaning furniture.

For large shoes which slip at the heel, glue a shaped piece of velvet to the inside, bottom and side of the heel, and it will cling to the stocking.

Too much salt in gravy may be counteracted by putting a pinch of brown sugar in it.

After using a bowl of cold water starch it should be allowed to settle. Then pour off the water and dry the starch in the oven at night or on the stove. It will be reduced to a cake and can be powdered and used over again.

A Truthful Editor Wouldn't Correct.

A local paper published a long obituary of a man who had died in the community, closing with the statement that "a long possession of people followed the remains to their last roasting-place." The family read the notice, and discovered the supposed error, and asked the editor to make a correction in the word "roasting," but he said he could not do it until seven years' back subscription that the deceased owed had been paid—[Ex.

Gray squirrels will soon be under the protection of the law. Beginning May 1, next, it will be unlawful to "hunt, chase, catch, kill," or have in one's possession, except alive, any gray squirrel, under a penalty of $20. It is hoped these beautiful and graceful little animals may become numerous and tame. The small boy with the air gun must now let them alone. The gray squirrel has pronounced migratory habits and their numbers in any locality vary greatly with the years.

Worth Knowing About.

If you need a first-class laxative, there is nothing better nor safer than that old family remedy, Brandreth's Pills. Each pill contains one grain of solid extract of sarsaparilla, which, with other valuable vegetable products, make it a blood purifier of excellent character. If you are troubled with constipation, one pill at night will afford great relief.

Brandreth's Pills are the same fine laxative tonic pill your grandparents used. They have been in use for over a century and are sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated.

WOMEN PAY MORE.
Why Insurance Companies Discriminate Against the Gentle Sex.
If one is to believe the medical examiners the reason a woman pays more for the privilege of life insurance is that she is much more commonly a victim of indigestion and stomach troubles and the fatal ailments that spring from these causes.
It is not the acute attacks of disease that influence the insurance examiners alone, but the constant feelings of weakness, headache, indigestion and stomach trouble. These things, physicians say, kill more people than many of the serious diseases.
For curative power in all stomach troubles nothing else is as safe yet effective, nothing else can be so thoroughly relied upon to relieve all troubles of indigestion, as Mi-o-na. It is unlike any remedy heretofore known; it is not a mere digestive tablet; it strengthens and restores to natural action the stomach and bowels and makes a complete cure in even the worse forms of stomach troubles.
Frank Kimball, Noyes Drug store, sells Mi-o-na in 50-cent boxes under a guarantee to refund the money unless it does all that is claimed for it. 16 & 18

WEST PORTER.

L. L. Thompson lost a hog last week.

Schools commenced in town the 15th.

Mrs. Simeon Day is better at this writing.

E. Danforth is helping J. Douglass in the mill.

Noyes Norton lost his sap house by fire, Sunday.

Frank Brooks and Ansel Allen are in poor health this spring.

Mrs. Sally Downs is not so well. She has had a very sick week.

Edgar Bickford is out again and was round on his route, Friday.

Abial Downs commenced work at the mill for J. Douglass, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Copp of Cornish visited in this vicinity, Tuesday.

T. B. Libby had quite a sick day this week but is better at this writing.

B. Sawyer and lady of Freedom, N. H., visited his aunt, Mrs. A. Down's, Sunday.

Joseph Douglass has started up his steam mill. He has a lot of lumber to saw this spring.

J. T. Libby has a new violin. Now the gentlemen and ladies can have a fine time shaking the foot.

If woodchucks have come out of their holes they will want to get back again if it holds as cold as it is now.

Tryphena Pearl returned home from Parsonsfield where she has been at work caring for the sick the past winter.

Sapping is about over in this vicinity. C. Cole has taken his buckets up. He has made about 100 galons of syrup this spring.

R. Libby, while at work for Harry Pearl, Thursday, taking down his barn, was struck on the right side by a stick of falling timber, knocking the wind out of him but no bones were broken. He will be laid up for awhile.

Franklin Pearl is still in a critical condition. There does not seem to be much help he can get, but he seems to keep around.

Peary's Dash.

A great many will envy Commander Peary the pleasure of making a dash for the pole in view of the fact that it is said to be impossible to take cold in the Arctic region. Commander Peary never heard any one member of his party complain of a cold while they were with him, but last winter he suffered with the rest of us and had cold after cold.

To be sure it is just possible that the winter at the pole was of the old-fashioned kind, and that the climate was much like that of Maine, but if it is actually impossible to take cold there we shall all feel a bit envious when the Roosevelt sails again and the brave explorer with her.

Commander Peary is a brave man. He has already done, it would seem, his part. He has gone further in the direction of the pole than any other explorer, but he is not content and will not be until he has made a successful dash and reached the pole itself.

A. R. Dennett of Fryeburg got a 12 pound salmon in Sebago lake last week, Thursday.

Residents May Ship but One Deer

That and Other Restrictions are Among the Changes Wrought by the Legislature.

The session of the Maine legistature, which concluded its 73d deliberation on the needs and wishes of its constituency, has been productive of not so voluminous a fish and game list of acts, perhaps, as some of its predecessors, but there have been some changes worthy of notice.

Perhaps the most sweeping changes were involved in the rights of residents as to the shipments out of the State, and the imposition of a hunter's license for the unnaturalized, foreign-born residents, and in the first of these is a definate blow at the custom of shipping deer to the Boston and other out-of-the-state markets, for now a resident may take but one of his two deer beyond the limits of his native State.

The other act, which was in reality aimed, as alleged, at the Italian workmen on the railroad extension work, forbids those sintul souls of sunny Italy to depopulate the Maine woods, along the line of the railroad or in any other locality, of the bright plumaged and sweet voiced song birds, or in fact of any of the life of the woods without first purchasing a license for the privilege. This may be but the entering wedge, and that a future legislature is to be urged to carry it further, and forbid all incursions on the wild lands of the State, when armed with fireaams, during the close season. The attempt to have this law so extended failed, but the Italians were not in line for protection.

All gray and black squirrels in Maine have been put under the protection of the law for four years, from May 1st, 1907.

The general duck law has been changed, so that open time is one month longer, including the month of December—in Lincoln county January has also been included, making the open season in that month from September first to January 31st, inclusive.

The law on golden-eye and whistler has been changed so far as it affects Hancock county, where the open season is extended to include the month of January.

By a change in the law affecting the purchasing of skins of wild animals it is now only necessary for a resident, who shall be satisfactory to the commissioners, to purchase a license for dealing in skins of deer, otter, sable and fisher; while the non-resident or unnaturalized foreign born resident must pay for the privilege of purchasing any skins of any kind (wild) whatsoever.

Open season at Sebago lake has been shortened by one month, cutting off the fishing privileges for the month of September, thus making the season on this lake practically as long as on other waters of the state, which in general do not usually open for weeks after the ice leaves this lake.

Length of minimum land-locked salmon allowable, changed to 12 inches; of black bass to 10 inches; of white perch to six inches.

No lumber camp may have, keep or use in any one year, more than six deer.

Those residents who want to take game birds out of the State may do so after the donation of $5. to the fish and game department for six partridges, or the same amount for ten woodcock, or for ten ducks, provided of course that he himself has lawfully killed the birds.

No trout, togue, land-locked salmon, white perch nor black bass may be sold in Maine by any person.

Open season on muskrats changed and extended, so that now they may be taken from December 1st to May 1st, with the previous special privileges affecting them as destructive to cranberry bogs, etc., and in the towns of Rockport, Camden, Hartland, Harmony, Athens and Palmyra, standing as before.

No change was made in the beaver law not even the attempt to create an open time on beaver in Somerset county succeeding, thanks to the able efforts of John Francis Sprague of Monson, Hon. Wm. W. Sewall of Houlton, Manly Hardy of Brewer and others, who came to the rescue with irrefutable evidence of the general harmlessness of the beaver. The commissioners may still order them destroyed upon evidence of their doing actual, substantial damage to timberlands.

The number of lines of one person may use when fishing in open water is more definitely fixed as two, so that it is legal to use two lines in either "plug" fishing or trolling.

Any person setting a trap on any unincorporated place must visit it at least once in 24 hours, and remove any animal caught therein. Nor must traps be set on any cultivated land without first obtaining the consent of the owner of the land.

A NATION OF CRIPPLES, RHEUMATISM BEYOND CONTROL

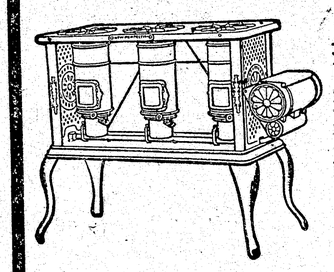

The Only Hope to Rheumatic Suffers is Uric-O Treatment.

If rheumatism continues to spread as it has in the past few years, it would seem as though we would before long become a nation of cripples. The terrible destructiveness of this disease is apparent on every side of us. Almost nine out of ten of the cripples one meets had their affliction brought on by Rheumatism. How many thousands more there are that are hopelessly bed-ridden and whom we never see. Rheumatism from the very nature of the disease, can never cure itself and if neglected, is bound to grow worse rather than better. If you ever have any twings of Rheumatism go to your druggist and get a bottle of Uric-O, the wonderful new Rheumatic Specific. It will cure you and it is the only treatment in the world that will cure you permanently and thoroughly. Uric-O cures by its direct action on the muscles, blood and kidneys. It seeks out the poisonous Uric and Rheumatic Acid and drives it from the system and it is only a treatment of such a nature that will ever cure Rheumatism. Liniments and plasters only serve to drive it from one spot to another. They never cure Rheumatism, because it is primarily a blood disease, and until the blood is cleared from the poison, a cure cannot take place.

There never was a case of Rheumatism that Uric-O could not cure and you should not put off taking it. You can test Uric-O free of charge if you wish. Just cut out this advertisement and send it to the Smith Drug Co., Syracuse, N. Y., together with your name and the name of your druggist, and state that you have never used Uric-o and would like to try it. They will give you free, through your druggist, a 75 cent bottle, which you can test and try to your own satisfaction.

Uric-o is sold and recommended in Norway by the Noyes' Drug Store. 18-19

The Paragraph Pulpit.

BY EDWIN A. RUMBALL.

"Believe me for the very works sake." There are at least two aspects of belief: you may believe in a man from what he says or from what he is. The man to whom Jesus addressed our text could not believe in Jesus' words. In effect, therefore, Jesus says to him, Never mind, if you cannot believe my doctrines, have confidence in me from the life you see me live. Many could not believe all Jesus said in His day, but He was satisfied to live God's life and that life has won Him more disciples than all the doctrines He ever believed.

Yet to-day the world—and sometimes the world is the church, it was when Jesus was here—the world, I say, still listens to see what men believe, and their value of men is not estimated by their life. We make our little garden and wall it around, and if a flower appears which did not grow in our garden, we call it a weed. Thank heaven, the winds of God blow the seeds of truth into everyone's garden, wall or no wall. Put Paul, Luther, Calvin, Wesley, Parker, Damien, Emerson, Booth, Ingersoll and Gipsy Smith together to talk about creeds and what a bedlam there would be, put them together to go about doing good as Jesus did and we should have heaven. These men all had different notions about Jesus, but they all believed in Jesus. "To whom shall we go?" From millions of all notions there is but one cry—Jesus. Every sect claims Him and why shouldn't they. His heart is larger than ours, for be it Christian, infidel or sinner, He is the Friend of all the sons of men, and they who deepest live, toil by the light and love and hope which He has given.

BROWNFIELD.

Beulah Fitch of Sebago has been visiting her uncle, H. F. Fitch.

The high school has begun with R. Y. Storer as teacher. The other town schools begun April 15th.

Very few brown-tail moths have been found in town as yet, although a strict search is being made for them.

Mrs. Charles Harmon, who has been ill with grip, is gaining slowly. Geneva Sands has had the German measles.

The remains of the late Mrs. Abilda (Fogg) Pratt were taken to Brownfield for interment. Rev. Dr. Tarr of the First Congregational church officiated.

On account of the change in the service last Sunday, Dr. Tarr preached at the Congregational church, Sunday on "Jesus, a Leader of Me." In the evening he preached on "Some Lessons from Spring."

Rev. I. Luce, who is a cousin and guest of Hiram Gatchell, preached a very interesting sermon at the Congregational church, Sunday morning, April 15th. In the evening he spoke upon the work of the Civic League.

SWEDEN.

Mrs. Lemuel Knight is suffering with a sore foot.

Ice formed one inch in thickness Saturday night, April 20.

Will Bryan is trimming his orchard in up-to-date style.

Bert Tower went to Norway a short time ago and swapped horses with Mr. Andrews.

Walter E. Gordon is shingling his house. Leroy Poor is going to shingle and paint his house.

Charles Jones of Allston, Mass., came last week with the remains of his son, Frank, about 17 years of age. The remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground.

Chauncy Poor, who made a violin out of an old cigar box which was 50 years old or more, has sold it to his sister, Mrs. Rachel Knight, for the sum of $50. The trade was made before a witness. The reason that Mrs. Knight bought it was that Mr. Poor said he was going to sell it as he knew he could get a good sum for it. He priced it and Mrs. Knight closed the trade. She wants it to remain in the Poor family.

HITS THE PAIN SPOT.

Why Neuralgic Anodyne is so Uniformly Successful.

When your nerves are throbbing from the pain of headache or neuralgia, or when your chest is racked and sore with a cough, you are not looking for a remedy that will give relief in a week or two. You want something that will cure at once. Neuralgic Anodyne is a remedy that hits the pain spot directly through external application, and by taking a little in sweetened water, soothes the whole nervous system and almost instant relief is gained. Working its way through the pores of the skin, Neuralgic Anodyne hits the pain spot at once, and cures the aching, miserable and throbbing nerves. It is also invaluable in cases of rheumatism. A large bottle costs but 25c., and is sold by dealers everywhere with the understanding that the money will be refunded if the remedy does not do all that is claimed. SOUTH PARIS

Dora Parsons was at home from Hebron a few days this week.

I. E. Andrews is papering and painting at Dr. King's summer home.

Eunice Forbes, who is teaching in Wakefield, Mass., is spending a week's vacation with her sister, Mrs. Walter Swett.

Arthur Talbot has been helping W. H. Swett in tearing down and removing some sheds preparatory to raising and repairing his barn.

Porter District.

Mrs. Mary Greely is taking care of Mrs. G. A. Jackson.

Charles Martin and wife visited at J. A. Portet's, Sunday.

Mrs. Leach visited her daughter, Mrs. B. Y. Russell, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Clara Blair, who works for Mrs. Sidney Farnum, visited for a few days in Berlin, N. H.

Nettie Mason, a student in the high school, came to stay over Sunday with her sister, Bessie, the school teacher in this district.

W. O. Bryant and son, Herman, visited his mother in Woodstock, the 28th, it being her 73d birthday. She is well and doing her work as usual.

Willis Cummings, son of Melroy, who formerly resided here, visited his schoolmates here last week. He works in a mill, where they now live in South Windham.

W. O. Bryant is papering several rooms for Mrs. Willard Bryant. He recently papered rooms for Mrs. Kate Holden, so we may now add that we have a paperhanger among our list of workers.

WEST SUMNER.

Mrs. Geo. Packard has had quite a sick spell but is some better.

F. J. Brown has sold his stand here to Carl P. Dunham from North Paris.

Mrs. Cynthia Bisbee makes maybaskets for all who order in this vicinity.

Laroy Pulsifer from Lynn, Mass., came last week and is attending to the building of an apple house in his orchard.

E. W. Chandler has had his buildings newly painted a light color with green trimmings, which makes them look very nice.

James M. Buck has moved from Auburn into the house here which he bought last fall, known as the C. A. Bonney house.

Blanche Downs from Sumner is at work for Mrs. J. A. Tuell in her bakery business. A large amount of food is cooked and sold every week.

K. P. Bowker was suffering last week with a bad cold, causing him to feel unable to carry the mail for some days. His son-in-law, H. T. Heath, substituted for him.

Mrs. M. P. Heald is having extensive inside repairs made in the way of painting and papering. E. W. Chandler, Mrs. Abbie Bates, Mrs. Hattie Young and Mrs. Geo. Clark have newly papered rooms.

Mrs. Eva Whitman from Rumford Falls has visited her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Bisbee. Mrs. Bisbee had a sick time with the grip this spring but is again doing her work, although none too well.

Mrs. Hattie Young has had her house shingled. Fairfield Farrar has had one side of his house shingled. Mr. Farrar, who has been sick for several weeks, seems to be improving slowly. His brother, Washington Farrar, is boarding at Everett Robbins' and comes to see him nearly every day.

Mrs. M. J. Pulsifer returned home, April 25, after spending five months in Woodstock with Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wyman, old time friends. She has realized but little about the cold winter we have had. Mrs. Wyman has set up, as is her custom each year, 400 maybaskets for which she finds a ready sale in that and surrounding towns.

The Royal Novelty Company consisting of Mr. White with wife and two gentlemen are stopping here a week, boarding with Mrs. Alma Buck and entertaining the people with their shows in the vestry each evening, Sunday excepted. They seem to be nice people. Their shows are clean and respectable, consisting of moving pictures, sleight of hand acts, songs, music by organ and phonograph, etc. They are well patronized and highly spoken of. Some evenings a civil dance follows the entertainment.

EAST OXFORD.

J. P. Penley has a span of horses he bought of Andrews Bros. of Norway.

S. H. Wardwell of West Minot was in this place Friday and Saturday, April 26 and 27.

May I. Downing of Norway spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solon Downing.

J. P. Penley bought three cows Saturday of Walter Knightly and sold two Friday, one to Bert Weston and one to C. R. Penley of Paris.

Alcohol not needed

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows.

We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol from our medicines
We urge you to consult your doctor

Ayer's

Ask your doctor, "What is the first great rule of health?" Nine doctors out of ten will quickly reply, "Keep the bowels regular." Then ask him another question, "What do you think of Ayer's Pills for constipation?"

WEST PARIS.

Four Pastorates During 35 Years.

Rev. L. W. Raymond of East Dixfield exchanged with Mr. Evans of the Free Baptist church last Sunday. Mr. Raymond has had a remarkable record, having been in the ministry nearly 35 years and has been in only four pastorates. His native home was Dixfield where he now is.

His first pastorate was at Harrison where he remained 12 years. It was while there that he made several visits to West Paris to assist in the work here. He then went to Lowell, Mass., for two and a half years when he was called to Fairport, N. Y. While there he superintended the building of a larger church building, also a parsonage. After 16 years of successful labor he resigned on account of ill health. Many were the regrets expressed at his departure.

He returned to Maine and after spending several months at Old Orchard beach resumed pastoral duties in the small church at East Dixfield about six years ago. Mr. Raymond is a very able speaker and was much enjoyed by the congregation last Sunday.

Mrs. C. G. Morton is spending a week or two at South Paris.

P. J. Miles has purchased an interest in a store at Gorham, N. H.

Walter Ricker has gone to Harrison to work in the poultry business.

Mrs. Nellie F. Bryant of South Paris visited old friends the first of the week.

Mrs. Fred Penley and little son from Locke's Mills visited relatives here last week.

Vernal Bates of New Haven, Conn., made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bates a visit last week.

Miss Fuller of the Maine State Bible society is canvassing the village this week and taking a church census.

Rev. C. E. Brooks of Norway supplied at the Methodist church last Sunday. Rev. D. L. Joslin is expected next Sunday.

The last meeting of the Wednesday club for this year met with Mrs. F. E. Wheeler this week, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lena Farnum made a trip to Boston last week to meet her nephew Frank Hook from the South, who has come here for an extended visit.

Lincoln Holmes has sold his land opposite the depot on which his livery stable is situated to L. C. Bates. Mr. Holmes will move the stable. His family have moved this week to their farm in Greenwood. Several rumors are afloat as to what Mr. Bates intends to do with the lot. Rest assured that whatever he does it will be something to the improvement of the village.

Mrs. Elva E. Locke and her son-in-law H. S. Gerrish of Lisbon were in town recently and made the final arrangements for the sale of grist mill property. The purchaser, Alton C. Maxim of South Paris, together with James S. Wright and Alton C. Wheeler, also have been in town for the purpose of retracing the old lines and boundaries of the mill property. Mr. Maxim has not purchased the tenement house standing near the mill, but takes the rest of the mill lot, with the mill and storehouse. Mrs. Locke reserves the tenement to go with the homestead. A Grand Trunk official with a surveyor was in town the same day and plans are being made for a siding for the grist mill.

The anniversary of Odd Fellowship which was observed Friday evening was well attended notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. The entertainment was enjoyed and consisted of familiar songs by the audience, some finely arranged tableaux, etc. The rest of the program was as follows:

Address.....Rev. I S. McDuff
Songs
(a) And a little child shall lead them, Harris
(b) Where de sunshine gone to, Vannah.....
.....Alice E. Barden
Reading.....Cora D. Lurvey
Polly Prim, character song in costume.....
..... Madge and Ivan Tuell
Clog dance..... Master Ivan
Reading.....Ruby Smith
Reading.....Emerson Curtis
Farce, In Want of a Servant.
Reading.....Maude Tuell

A treat of ice cream was enjoyed by all and there was enough to treat the I. O. O. F. members on the next night at their regular meeting.

Very Best of Reasons

A letter dated at North Lovell with no name attached reads as follows:—

"I am getting old and my eyesight has failed and money is hard to get, and you may stop my paper when the time is out."

There are 12 papers going to the North Lovell post-office but which one of them wants his paper stopped we are unable to say. Will someone tell us?

NORTH WOODSTOCK.

Geo. Brown has made over 100 gallons of syrup.

DENMARK.

A Runaway and a Tip-out.

As Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Johnson were returning from Brownfield last week Thursday afternoon the bit broke letting the bridle back from Dandy's, the horse's head, causing the horse to run about a mile with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson in the wagon before he could be stopped. It was rather an exciting ride for the aged couple. Fortunately no especial damage was done.

Last Sunday afternoon as Mr. and Mrs. Irving Ingalls were driving out of George Colby's yard, in turning they were tipped out breaking the wagon. They escaped with a good shaking up and a few bruises.

George Allen sold his horse one day last week.

Mrs. Isaac Berry has been quite poorly but is gaining slowly.

Ida Kennison is home for a week's vacation from Portland.

Mrs. Ezra Davis has sold her farm and intends to return West.

Silas Hebbard of Limington was in town one day last week.

Elwood Pingree returned from his visit to Washington, D. C., April 24.

Willard McKusick came home from the Maine General hospital at Portland much improved in health.

Herbert Pendexter and family of East Fryeburg visited his sister, Mrs. Eugene Higgins one day last week.

Reginald Perham came home from Boston last week where he has been the past few weeks with his father.

Mrs. Alphonso Lunt and daughter Gertrude of Frenchboro are visiting her mother, Mrs. McKusick and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Lucy Harnden is very poorly. She has closed her house and gone to Brownfield to stay a few weeks with her son, Harry Harnden, hoping the change will prove beneficial.

Schools begin this week with the following teachers:

Center district—Florence Jewett.
East Denmark—Amy Smith.
West Denmark—Alice Bennett.
Colby district—Florence Ingalls.
Harnden district—Gertrude Warren.
Liberty Corner—Mrs. Carrie Warren.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK.

J. H. Davis and son bought a yoke of oxen last week.

Mrs. Eliza Twitchell is moving to Sumner this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Andrews made a trip to Lewiston, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davis attended church at West Paris, Sunday.

The last meeting of the Jolly Eight Whist club was held with Mrs. Perry Farrington last Wednesday afternoon. A very pleasant time was enjoyed, as was also the delicious wax on snow and lemonade. This club will reorganize again next fall.

The Village Improvement society held the first whist party of the new year with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Purrington last Tuesday evening. Four tables were filled and a jolly time had. F. A. Frost and Mrs. Chas. Herrick came out first, I. M. Leighton and Mrs. Earl Farrington, second.

EAST STONEHAM.

Asa Keniston is in very poor health, with a troublesome cough.

School is in session in district No. 1, Miss N. N. Butters, teacher.

Clarence Files has been sick with the measles during the past week.

Miss M. R. Littlegeld has returned home from her visit in New Hampshire.

A few patches of snow are still left us, but the grass is beginning to look green.

One of Dr. Coolidge's horses was badly lamed one night a week or more ago, by stepping into a hole in the road, it being too dark for him to notice the bad place.

Elmer Keniston, a young son of Asa Keniston's, about eight years of age, came near hanging himself with a rope, recently, but was rescued from his uncomfortable position before any serious result of his experimenting to see how it would seem to be hung.

I read about the "heavy men" of Stoneham in your last paper and was somewhat surprised thereat. While we confess to having for our townsmen some heavy men whose weight may be 200 pounds or more, and are very proud of our big brothers, I think the assertion that "More than half of the voters in our town weigh over 200 pounds each," is a little bit strong, but do not claim to be posted on the subject. In comparison with the Tyrolese giantess, Marie Fassanauer, now said to be on exhibition in London, England, our heavy men and women would sink into physical insignificance. She is said to be eight feet in height and weighs 343 pounds. She is 27 years of age.

NORWAY CENTER.

A Thousand Expected.

W. W. Holt has had unusually good luck with his 400 or more chicks; lost only one, not one on the ground as yet, which we have always thought to be a matter of necessity or they would surely die. He has had three large windows put in the roof of his old hop-house and nicely fitted up otherwise, proving that little chicks with plenty of sunshine will do well even if they cannot be on the ground. Mr. Holt is expecting a thousand or more soon.

Within one short week all the large snowdrifts have disappeared excepting the one on the south side of Young hill in Greenwood, and that looks now from here as though it would remind us of drifting snows of winter till into June, as it has in many years past. A few little drifts are yet to be seen off on the hills but not many. The green grass has taken their place.

Roy Davis is to work for M. G. Richardson this season.

Annie Richardson's school in Greenwood commenced last Monday.

Lydia Foster, who has been visiting her sister in Lynn for several weeks, is expected home soon.

Harold Holt's time to stay with W. W. Holt expired the first of May and he is caring for all his flocks alone for the present.

HARRISON.

Perley Whitney found a large bunch of mayflowers, April 28th.

Kathryn Wight is going to Portland for a year to study elocution and music.

Carl Whitney has bought the Purington place and is going into the hen business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitney spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Whitney.

Bradford Kimball of Albany spent Saturday night and Sunday with his brother Samuel.

The house owned by Mrs. Susan Kimball Smith and lately occupied by her son, Reuben, was destroyed by fire, April 19th. It was supposed to have caught from hot ashes stored in the shed. Reuben's losses were heavy.

GREEN MOUNTAIN SILOS.

THEY ALL ENDORSE THE GREEN MOUNTAIN SILOS—
Every agricultural paper, Every professor in every agricultural college,
Every educated agriculturist, Every stock raiser,
Every practical dairy farmer, Indorses the system of live stock feeding of which the GREEN MOUNTAIN SILO and its famous GREEN MOUNTAIN SILAGE are the very highest representatives.

The question for the dairyman to decide is not, "Should I have a silo?" but rather, "Am I not loosing money by not having a silo?" "Shall I not buy a silo and buy the best, the GREEN MOUNTAIN, while I am about it?"

If GREEN MOUNTAIN SILOS were not the best they would not be generally in use on the best dairy farms and indorsed by representative dairymen.

Bad Fire in Bethel.

A bad fire broke out in Cole block on Upper Main street, Bethel village, about 9 o'clock, Saturday evening. This is a large block owned by the Bethel Savings bank and occupied by that bank, the Bethel National bank and the law offices of Herrick & Park, on one side of the front and by the large jewelry and dry goods store of Edward King on the other, while the entire rear of the building is occupied by the printing establishment of E. C. Bowler. Above is a large public hall, telephone office and selectmen's office. The building is of wood and is 50x100 feet on the ground and is high. There is a basement under the entire building.

The fire was discovered by a clerk in the store of Mr. King but was even then burning through the floor. The alarm was at once given and the fire dedartment with the two hose companies and the hook and ladder company was soon on the ground. At that time the basement seemed a seething mass of flames and the fire was running along the floors overhead and had gotten into the partitions on Mr. King's side and between the floors over the printing office to some extent.

The fire in the basement soon was extinguished, but on account of the fire in the partitions and between the floors it looked for some time as though the building was doomed, and it was not till 1 o'clock that the fire was under control. The fire run in the partitions to the roof.

The fire started in some wood and kindlings it is thought, in the basement; but it did not seem to be near either of the wood furnaces in the basement. The cause of the fire is unkhown. King was insured for $2,100, and his loss must reach nearly that figure. Bowler carried $5,000 blanket policy on his office equipment and his loss is heavy, owing to the damage to the linotype machine and presses. This loss will reach well up to the amount of the insurance probably. The building was insured for $5,000, and the loss to that will be anywhere from $3,000 up, depending upon resulting conditions from water, etc.

The insurance was largely with W. J. Wheeler & Co's. agency at South Paris, sithough some was with that of Freeland Howe of Norway. The fire was watched carefully all night.

King's large stock was badly damaged by water and rough handling. Bowler's Bethel News office was flooded with water, also the basement directly beneath, as there the most of the fire appeared. Herrick & Park's large law library was more or less damaged by hurried handling, the covers being marred by scratches and stains but not wet down with water. It was returned to its shelves the next day.

The insurance agents have been in town, adjusting damages.

BETHEL.

Gilman-Hastings.

The wedding of Ethel Mae Hastings and Harry Lawson Gilman took place on Monday at the home of the bride's parents', at Newry Corner. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Gleason of Bethel. The marriage was witnessed by the members of the family and a few close friends. Mrs. Charles Gilman and Lydia Gilman of Waterville, mother and aunt of the groom, were present.

The room was prettily decorated with plants, Mayflowers and evergreen, the bride, gowned in white silk, and the groom, standing under an arch of evergreen and flowers. After the ceremony refreshments were served, then Mr. and Mrs. Gilman took the afternoon train to Brookline, Mass., where they will reside. There was a pretty display of wedding presents, consisting of linen, china and silver, and many gifts are awaiting them in their future home.

The Fireman's ball is to come off Friday evening.

Mayflowers in full bloom are being brought in.

Mrs. Amanda F. Morton has been granted a pension.

The lot lately occupied by G. P. Bean's store is now cleared of its charred remains.

Geo. F. Bartlett has broken up, prior to moving to their new home in Dorchester, Mass.

Sherman Haselton and wife are much pleased with their 9 pound daughter of April 29th.

F. L Edwards has the most of his pulp timber boomed near the mouth of Alder river.

Walter Clark has sold his household goods and is going to Lowell, Mass., to learn the mason's trade.

Prin. E. H. Pratt of Oxford came to Bethel Saturday and returned with his family, Sunday afternoon.

Frank Kendall has again taken one of the Lake teams after a vacation of more than a month of sickness.

Mrs. D. S. Hasting is in Boston, attending the graduation of their daughter Edith, from the elocution school.

Middle Intervale.

Orlando Buck and his youngest child have been sick.

The Carters have shipped their potatoes to Berlin and ashes shipped back to improve their farm.

The frogs began their chorus, April 28th, and were heard by the inmates of Maple and Pine Farmhouse.

Charles Kimball, who has been visiting relatives and friends here, has returned to Bellows Falls, where his brother lives.

Tribute to ex-Governor Perham carries us back to the reunion at Gould Academy some years ago, where in pleasing conversation he said he attended school at old Gould with Capt. Henry Packard and his brother, Stephen, whose aged widow now lives in Bethel nearly ninety years of age and can see to read and sew some even without her glasses. She can tell a reporter about her childhood days when she and her sister, Polly, milked the cows and cared for the sheep and lambs and rode to church with her mother on horseback, and lived in a log house, sometimes hearing wild beasts howling around the buildings, and later on her father, Joseph Penley, became a prominent farmer and one of the wealthiest men in that town. Now only a few are left of that large and interesting family. Charles Penley, a war veteran, and his brother, Francis, are the only men living in the family, and Mrs. Sarah T. Pratt, widow of the late Capt. G. C. Pratt, and Mrs. Louisa B. Packard, widow of the late Stephen Packard, jr., who is the oldest one now living.

WEST FRYEBURG.

Mrs. S. G. Hardy.

The death of Ella M., wife of S. G. Hardy, on April 12th, removes from our midst an esteemed friend and neighbor. For more than three years she had been a great sufferer from a nervous trouble and was much of the time confined to her room. April 16th, the funeral services were held at her late home, Rev. H. H. Hoyt being the officiating clergyman. Interment was in the cemetery at North Fryeburg.

A brother of Mrs. Hardy, S. C. Howe, died at the Togus home for soldiers in February last and the death of Mrs. Hardy removes the last of the family to which she belonged. She is survived by her husband, S. G. Hardy, and a daughter, Edith M. Walker, who was her mother's devoted attendant during her long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. E. Hutchins occupied their cottage at Kezar for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hanscom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meserve, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Walker, Mrs. H. McKeen and Cassie Hutchins spent the day in Portland, Saturday.

If he is correctly reported, L. Bryant, who has bought and sold several farms in town, said he would not buy another farm in Fryeburg taxes are so high. He has purchased and removed to a farm in Conway, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McKeen of Fryeburg took a vacation of a few days in Lovell recently, Mrs. McKeen's sister, Mrs. H. D. E. Hutchins, taking charge of her household affairs, while Mr. Hutchins, Tommie and Pascal kept bachelors' hall at home.

Dealers in paint must be kept busy of late judging by the bright new look of the buildings along the way. Will Shaw is painting his buildings. The brothers, Frank and Fred Hutchins, have their buildings treated with new paint, and N. R. Hardy will have completed painting his buildings in a few days.

NORTH WATERFORD.

Mrs. H. P. Elliott is having her house shingled.

Mrs. Ella Charles went to Norway, Tuesday.

George Farmer is very feeble and sits up very little.

Several parties have been smelting, returning with good success.

Hector Ross and wife move, Wednesday, to their home which they have bought at Lynchville.

John F. Rice was over from Norway, Tuesday. Mrs. Rice is still very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. F. Stone, at Norway.

W. S. Perkins and sister, Mrs. James Brown, were called to Tamworth, N. H., by the death of their father, which occurred last Wednesday. They returned Monday afternoon.

Charles Saunders, wife and daughter came from Bingham last week to visit Mrs. Saunders' parental home. Mr. Saunders returned, Monday, leaving his wife and daughter for a longer visit.

Rev. Edwin A. Rumball of Waterford preached an eloquent sermon last Sunday to the Odd Fellows, who attended church in a body. His subject was "Ideals of Christian Socialism," and he preached, not the socialism of the anarchist but a condition of things that shall ennoble and uplift and bring about peace and harmony in our surrounddigs.

Rice Neighborhood.

Chas. H. Rice lost a cow last week of milk fever.

B. W. Rice is at work at the town farm getting out dressing.

Mrs. H. E. Rice, who has been nursing the sick in Harrison, returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Millett took dinner last Saturday at her parental home.

An Old Man Rejoices

After Suffering Twenty Years with Catarrh—Relieved by Taking Father John's Medicine.

Joseph Papineau, one of Ogdensburg's oldest and best known citizens, gladly testifies to the merits of Father John's Medicine. For twenty years, Mr. Papineau has suffered from that annoying and distressing ailment, chronic catarrh. Hearing of the good Father John's Medicine has been to hundreds of others, he began taking that wonderful medicine with excellent results. He says: "Father John's Medicine has done me so much good that I am very thankful for that old remedy.' Joseph Papineau, 160 Lake St., Ogdensburg N. Y.

Father John's Medicine is a splendid remedy for old people. It cures their throat and lung troubles and builds them up. 50 years in use.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY

BINGHAM METAL MINING COMPANY

STOCK One Dollar and Fifty Cents per Share.

Situated in the Bingham District, Utah. 1400 acres of mineral bearing land and 180 acres of timber land.

It has a modern electrical equipment, energy to operate the same furnished by our own water power. This saves the company in coal from $20 to $50 per day. It has four main tunnels through which the property is being developed and which will cut the ore-bearing beds at great depth. These tunnels run from the base of the mountains thus going a vertical depth of approximately 1500 feet.

Stevens, the great authority on American Copper Mines, in his "Copper Hand Book of 1905" speaking of Bingham generally, says, "No other point on the Globe are developments of greater importance or that are likely to have a more profound influence on the future of the copper industry. Utah Consolidated Company stock was placed on the market at $2.00 per share and is now selling for $60, paying a dividend of $3.00 per share. United States Mining Company stock was placed on the market a $10 00 per share and is now selling for $55, paying a dividend of $7.00 per share. Boston Consolidated stock was placed on the market at $5.00 a share and is now selling at $26.

TO THE HOUSE OWNER:—

"Economy is Wealth"

This does not mean buying cheaply or not buying at all.

But buying the best at a fair price.

The poorest economy is buying the cheapest adulterated goods that are put on the market. This applies to everything we use from food to our homes.

One of the articles of general use that is adulterated as much or more than any other one thing, is paint and is the hardest to detect, as the fraud will not show until it is too late to be of any use.

Money and labor all but thrown away, for it costs as much to paint with bad as with the good. One will last from two to four years, the good from six to ten according to exposure and conditions.

No one will question the economy of this proposition.

You can buy pure paint, there is no question as to that, and you are not obliged to take the word of the dealer.

Not that any dealer of ordinary common sense will intentionally sell an adulterated mixture as the pure article, but all are liable to be fooled once in a while. We are no exception. We have some paint now that is just what it is claimed to be and we do not take the makers' word for it. See analysis below of Town & Country Paint. Think it over and buy pure paint.

NORWAY AND VICINITY.

"The Toymakers."

Charles Felton Pidgin has written another story entitled "The Toymakers" and has made a musical absurdity from it. Twenty-six numbers of very pretty and tuneful music have been composed for it by Charles D. Blake and John A. Bennett.

The scenes of this musical play are laid in an old English toymaker's shop. The old toymaker has made a life-sized doll and tries to bring it to life by the aid of electricity. The doll is impersonated by the village belle and the complications that arise are many.

This comic opera is booked to play an engagement of one night at the Norway Opera House.

Miss Gregg is visiting in Buckfield this week, next week she is to have a case in the ADVERTISER office. Lorna Littlehale, who has "set type" the past winter, is teaching in Greenwood.

The ball on the closing evening of the Veranda-Band fair was held on Thursday evening with a good attendance both on the floor and in the gallery. About sixty couples were on the floor and danced to the music of Stearns' orchestra until a late hour. At intermission the winners in the various contests were presented with their prizes.

"The Gibson Girl" presented at the Opera House, Saturday evening, was a first-class entertainment. The attendance was large. The musical selections were excellent and rendered in a superior manner. George F. Hall in the part of Mr. Gibson handled the part in his usual masterly way. The other parts were well taken and furnished much amusement for the audience.

This is a story that was published in a Connecticut paper a short time ago, though the people here can't imagine where the dense woods about Norway are that he got lost in:—"William B. Walker of Norway, brother of J. Allen Walker, chief clerk at the Mohican hotel at New London, Conn., was reported to have been lost in the woods near Norway this week and a party of searchers were hunting for him. The news was sent to his brother in this city and Mr. Walker was about to go to Maine, when he received word that his brother was safe. The information came in a special delivery letter and the lost man explained that he had been chased by a bear and got so far in the dense woods about Norway that he rambled about until nightfall, when he found a deserted shanty and spent the night. It required several more hours to get back to the village. Mr. Walker writes that he will move from Maine."

Maine's Champion Oxford County Angler Going to Rangeley Lakes.

"This will be my 51st annual trip to the Rangeley lakes, and I am getting my tackle in shape for the season. Every year I get hold of something new, and this year it is a patent arrangement for holding the hook and line when I am not fishing, and prevents it getting caught and snarled up."

Thus spoke Freeland Howe of Norway when approached on the subject of angling.

"Every year," he continued, "just as soon as the ice goes out, I start for Upper Dam and the famous salmon pool to whip the water for a record fish. Things have changed since I first began going to the lakes, for in the early days we used to go Bryant's Pond, and thence by stage to Andover, where we put up over night, starting early the next morning by buckboard, and reaching the south arm of the Richardson at noon, if we were in luck. Now I leave here at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, eat my dinner at Upper Dam house, and am all ready for business on th pool in the afternoon of the same day.

"Then again, in those days there were no salmon, only square-tailed trout, that average from a pound to a pound and a half, and as there were no fish and game laws to limit the amount of fish we could catch and carry out, we used to take all that we could, put them in a car that was carried along in the boat so as to keep them alive, and when we were ready to go home would pick out about 100 pounds and turn the rest loose.

"Why I have known of parties who used to go upon the big lake, Mooselookmeguntic, who would fill a box car full of fish to take home, but now, under the wise provisions of the game laws, we have just as much sport and also give the fish a chance. Like Senator Frye, with whom I am well acqtainted, I fish with the fly nearly altogether, trolling seldom, and for spring fishing, consider the Parmachenee Belle, the best all-round fly. For fall fishing the Royal Coachman, Silver Doctor and Montreal are my Favorites, although I use a White Miller along toward dusk.

"My record fish are an 8-pound trout, trolling, and a 5½-pound trout which I took on a No. 12 black gnat, together with a 10¼-pound salmon, taken with a No. 10 Royal Coachman, and which I struck one afternoon when I was out alone, playing him for an hour and a half.

"There are a number of oldtimers that go to the Upper Dam year after year, and we have formed ourselves into an organization known as the "Old Guard." Thomas L. Barbour of South Framingham, Mass., is the oldest, and in addition I recall George B. Bearce, Lewiston; W. B. Brackett, R. N. Parish of of Montville, Conn., who holds the record, a 9 pound, 11 ounce trout, and a 12 pound, 9 ounce salmon; Arthur Rees, Philadelphia, Pa.; E. S. Osgood and C. E. Horrity, New York; D. R. Cunningham, Washington, D. C.; J. F. May, Westfield, Mass., who netted my big salmon for me; M. H. Curley, J. S. Doane, and Eugene Lynch of Boston, Mass. We are a jolly crowd and I'll bet every one of them are waiting for the magic words, 'Ice is out,' so that once more they can listen to the song of the reel"—[Globe.

Growing Celery.

J. A. Roberts of Norway finds celery a paying side crop. He sows in boxes in the house in February. When two inches high, he transplants into other boxes and puts his plants in the ground in the latter half of June, placing in moist, rich land. He has found horse manure, worked over by hogs, to be the very best dressing for celery. He puts his plants in trenches from eight to ten inches deep and about four feet apart, using the commercial fertilizer that analyzes the highest. He sets the plants about six inches apart and cultivates every few days, stirring the soil thoroughly. From the 10th to the 15th of August he trims his plants, and then backs up with boards at the sides for bleaching. It takes about three weeks to make ready for market. The Golden Self-Blanching is the variety he prefers, but sometimes he uses also the White Plume. He sells entirely in the local market, where there is a considerable demand for really fresh celery. There is still time to get celery plants started in boxes where there is a warm southern exposure and where a window sash can be placed over it on days too cool for its best good.

Mrs. Lydia Richards.

Mrs. Lydia Richards was found dead in bed at the home of her son, S. W. Richards in Andover, Monday morning, April 22.

The deceased had not been feeling well for several days, but it was thought that she was only afflicted with the grip. During Sunday afternoon the doctor called and the patient seemed better.

Lydia E. Richards was the daughter of David C. Brooks and Charlotte Parsons Brooks. She was born in Paris, Dec. 26, 1833. When 10 years of age she moved to Upton where she married Stephen N. Richards. She moved to Andover in March 1873. She had been a widow since 1889. She had been a worthy member of the M. E. church for nearly 50 years, always ready and willing to do her part. Four sisters and a brother survive. She leaves two sons, Dana and Wallace, with whom she had lived many years. An only daughter died in 1872.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, attended by G. B. Hannaford. Interment was in Woodlawn cemetery.

The Chapman Farm Sold.

Director Wm. R. Chapman of the Maine Musical festival has sold his Bethel farm to Warren A. Emery of Bethel. This sale includes all the fine tillage land owned by Mr. Chapman, on the easterly side of the road in Mayville, and also the large new barn built by Mr. Chapman last year. This barn is 100 feet long by 40 feet wide and is a good one. About 75 acres of land are included in this deal and all of it is intervale land. The price is not given out but it is reported that it was nearly $10,000. Mr. Chapman still retains his fine summer home and connected land on the opposite side of the road from the land sold. He also owns much other real estate in Bethel, including wood and timber land.

HEALTH OF WOMEN

In this nineteenth century to keep up with the march of progress every power of woman is strained to its utmost, and the tax upon her physical system is far greater than ever.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines. They relied upon roots and herbs to cure weaknesses and disease, and their knowledge of roots and herbs was far greater than that of women today.

It was in this study of roots and herbs that Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value.

This medicine made from native roots and herbs contains no narcotics or other harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

Mrs. C. E. Fink, of Carnegie, Pa., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I wish every suffering woman would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and write to you for advice. It has done me a world of good and what it has accomplished for me I know it will do for others."

When women are troubled with Irregularities, Displacements, Ulceration, Inflammation, Backache, Nervous Prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience she probably has the very knowledge that will help your case.

Arbor Day.

Arbor day should be observed in Maine this year, and in every year, with increasing interest and seriousness. The time passed long ago in the history of the State when trees might properly be looked upon as cumberers of the ground. There was a time, of course, in the process of settlement, when entire towns, after incorporation, were covered with virgin forests, when the first imperative need was to clear the land. To fell an acre of trees then was a public service, a necessary private exercise. The timber had no value, and after the trees had been felled there followed the log rolling and the burning that the ground might be cleared for the growth of crops so essential to the family and to the community. For years later the hard work of pulling of stumps and thus completing the clearing of the fields, left an impression from one generation to another little favorable to thoughts of scientific forestry or the sentiment inevitably associated with the observance of Arbor day.

But those early days have long since passed. There is scarcely a section, only in the northern part of the State, left today where the removal of the forests can be looked upon as an unmixed good to be desired and worked for. Instead there has come to the East from far away "treeless Nebraska," as it was once known, the idea of setting apart a day for the special purpose of the planting of trees. It is too much to expect that the day, at present, will be devoted generally to a discussion and practical application of the principles of forestry. That must come later as a result of a more intelligent recognition of the need of it.

There are certain lines, however, in which the present generation has a duty to perform toward the next, which ought not to be ignored. There are stretches of roadway in Maine which for years have been known as "streets." There are other places known as "squares." It is unnecessary to specify. In southern and middle Maine at least, almost everyone will call to mind one or more of these "streets" or "squares." Almost without exception these so-called streets and squares are distinctly characterized by their rows of stately elms, maples and other trees planted years ago by a generation which has passed away. Like those who planted them long ago these trees are also passing, and unless they are replaced, the names of the localities will alone remain, and even these, too, may pass away.

But if the crowning glory is to be continued to succeeding generations, there must be persistent and intelligent effort in the direction of supplying the loss from the ravages of time. Young trees must be set out to take the place of trees that are growing old. This is a feature of Arbor day that should be carefully and even religiously observed. Then, too, there should be deliberate inculcation of reverence for and care of trees along highways in the country towns.

But much can be done in the way of perpetuating the ancient glory of the highways by the beautifying of them and in the adornment of meeting-house plots and the school house lots and an increased respect for the resting places of the dead by the judicious planting of trees. And this work should be conscientiously attended to in every town and city on each recurring Arbor day.

EAST BROWNFIELD.

L. A. Cole has taken the express.

Will Butterfield lost a valuable cow recently.

The order of the day around here now is cleaning house.

J. E. Clement has a large of a crew of men working for him.

Edwin Poor is spending a few weeks with friends in Boston.

Philip Durgin bought a very nice pair of steers of Fred Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Butterfield called on Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Durgin.

School has commenced at this place with the same teacher as last year.

Mary Jewett has returned home. She has been working at Roscoe Stone's.

F. R. Bradbury, who has been spending a few days in Boston, has returned home.

Vesta Day of Porter, has taken Ruth Durgin's place at Mrs. J. E. Clement's.

Guy Hezeltine and wife, Mell Gray and wife and Fred Richardson of this place, have started for California.

STOW.

Caleb Wiley of Togus is visiting at his brother's, Joseph Wiley's.

Mrs. A. C. Andrews found a nest of the brown tail moths, recently.

Thelma Andrews is quite poorly, not able to sit up at this writing.

Margy, daughter of Solomon Johnson, has been sick; also Henry Johnson, a son.

Mrs. Oldin Stevens was up from South Windham recently, and took her little daughter Gladys back with her, very much to the disappointment of the grandparents.

Oxford County Agricultural Fair.

The prize lists are out for the sixty-fifth annual exhibition of the Oxford County Agricultural Society. The Fair will be held Sept. 17, 18, 19, and the revised prize list is more attractive than ever for the winners. The society is in a most prosperous condition, and with the improvements about the grounds and the good management that the experienced officers guarantee and fair weather, the next fair will be a record breaker.

Exhibit of Agricultural Machines.

A. W. Walker & Son invited the farmers and others to visit him, last Saturday and witness the working of some of the improved farm machinery for which they are agents. After the exhibition there was an auction of some second-hand machinery and tools. A. D. Park was the auctioneer.

The working of manure spreaders was illustrated and the land was plowed. Three different plows were used, The Wiares, Cambridge and Deere.

The long husking shed was filled with improved planters, seeders, cultivators, harrows, etc. Farming tools unknown to our grandparents, disk harrows of several kinds, one and two horse cultivators, corn planters, seeders and the like.

At the time of our visit there were fully fifty interested spectators watching the operations of the different machines. There were two gasoline engines at work, a 3 and a 6-horse power. Wood was being sawed and their practical working was well illustrated.

There was a good display of hay and grain harvesting machinery but the agitators of the soil took precedence over the machinery, the use of which comes later in the season.

This bringing the farmers together and giving a practical illustration of the working of the different implements is a good idea.

A. W. Walker & Son of South Paris have a large supply of farm implements and are thoroughly reliable in what they tell you.

HARTFORD.

Maddie Ford visited his father the 26th.

Bethuel Carey remains about the same.

Mrs. Frank Palmer is in poor health.

Mrs. O. E. Turner is able to ride out occasionally.

There are a number of cases of measles at the Centre.

Mrs. Alice Turner and little niece were guests of Mrs. L. A. Keene recently.

Naaman Burgess, the cream collector on the town farm route, has a new wagon.

Mrs. J. F. Child has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Persis Dearborn, in Livermore.

Asa Robinson of Sumner has been at work for George Ricker grafting, trimming apple trees, etc.

John Davenport is suffering from the effects of a kick from a horse. The bruise is very painful.

Harold Grant, the teacher of the high school, was called to Camden, the 22d, by the serious illness of his father.

Mrs. Herbert Sampson, who is in a hospital in Lewiston, is getting along well, we hear. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Henry Harnden.

Henry Harnden died April 13th of pneumonia after an illness of ten days. His health has not been good for several years. His system had become reduced so that little hope was entertained after he was stricken with that dread disease.

He leaves a widow, one son, Harry, who resides in Brownfield, and one daughter, Minnie, who has been with her father through his illness.

Mr. Harnden was respected by all his townsmen, a kind and loving father and husband, and will be sadly missed in the home and by his friends. His funeral was at Odd Fellows hall and as he was a member of Denmark lodge, No. 50, was laid to rest by his brothers of the lodge.

Harry Small has sold his large oxen to Paul Laberta of Hiram.

Only a small amount of maple syrup is made this spring in town.

The school committee are doing a fine job on the high school building at the village.

A. F. Bradbury made a visit to his son, Perley, who lives in Norwell, Mass., and arrived home the 12th.

Rev. S. B. Boyd's family came from Delaware, the 10th, and are enjoying home life at the parsonage.

Belle M. Smith, who has spent the winter in Worcester, came home to her father's, C. B. Smith's, the 7th.

Fred Sanborn has moved his portable mill from Bridgton to this town at Buck meadow, and is to saw all the pine and oak on the Henry Bartlett lot.

Willard McKusick is reported as getting along well at the Maine General hospital, Portland.

Elwood Pingree started for Washington, D. C., April 8, to return with his wife, who is visiting her father, S. G. Davis.

Rev. A. C. Boyd went to Portland, Tuesday, to meet his family. They arrived Wednesday, April 10th. They have six children, which will increase the Center school.

Eugene Higgins has finished work over in Bridgton. He was over to East Denmark at his father's, E. L. Higgins', working last week. Lura Higgins is visiting her grandparents at East Denmark, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Higgins.

PORTER.

Annie Stanley is at East Hiram teaching school.

Earl Norton has been cutting wood at L. E. Norton's.

Rev. James Perry of Cornish took dinner at C. A. Roberts, Sunday.

John Cartland has been sawing wood with his gasoline engine at Raymond Garland's.

John Chapman and Harry Estes have been at Kezar Falls sawing wood with their gasoline engine.

Master Frankie Roberts met with an accident by spilling hot water from the teakettle on one leg and arm.

Mrs. Moses Fox is intending to go to Boston for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. L. Chapman and will leave her aged father in care of Mrs. Hattie Norton.

The meeting at the Center was reported good with a larger attendance than common. Rev. James Perry of Cornish and Albert Weeman of Limington were also there.

WEST BETHEL.

Gwendolyn Stearns began school here, Monday, the 22d.

Mrs. Clara Abbott has been ill and now her two sons, Carrol and Byron, are ill.

Mrs. Adrian Grover was called to her home at South Bethel, to care for her mother, who is ill.

Florence Skillings is teaching on West Bethel Flat, where she has taught for the last two terms.

Edwin Kennaugh goes to Poland Springs, this week, to drive the baggage team for the summer.

Friday evening of Patriots' Day, F. L. Ordway gave a sugaring off party to his numerous friends of this place.

W. H. Hobbs, who has been at work for Mrs. L. E. Bean for the past year, is going to work for Lewis Whidden.

Marion and Gladys Morrill gave a very pleasant house party to several of their school friends, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, at their home on West Bethel Flat.

EAST HEBRON.

Lola Needham has been sick with the measles.

John Carpenter is working for Lizzie Marshall.

It is reported that G. F. Needham is going to sell out.

Carl Monk is quite sick with the prevailing epidemic.

School began the 22d, with Lizzie Bearce of Hebron, as teacher.

Levi Hodgon is visiting his daughter, Mrs. George Perkins, in Waterville.

Harry Record sold two fine looking cows last week to Mr. Green of Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman D. Phillips are home from Massachusetts on a short visit.

CASCO.

Joseph Batty's Buildings Burned.

The buildings of Joseph Batty at Casco village were burned early Thursday morning, April 18th. Mrs. Batty has been ill in bed for some time, there being only herself and husband in the house. Mr. Batty arose at about 1.30 a. m. to give his wife medicine, when he heard a noise in the barn, probably made by the stock frightened by the fire and smoke. Upon investigation he found the barn in flames, which were rapidly approaching the house. With much difficulty he succeeded in carrying out his wife, and with the help of neighbors saved nearly all the household goods, and the stock. The insurance of $500 does not cover the full loss. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is supposed to have started in the rear of the barn.

Mrs. Mary Murch is staying with her sister, Mrs. Julia Smith.

V. C. Hall was here and collected a load of veal calves Saturday.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A Member of Harry Rust Post.

Harris B. Kneeland, who died Monday April 22, was a native of Lovell, son of Smith Kneeland, and, was in his 67th year. He married Ella M. Adams of Sweden. Mr. Kneeland lived in Sweden before the Civil War, enlisted in 1862, and joined Capt. Amos F. Noyes' Co. H of the 23d Maine Infantry, commanded by Col. Wm. Wirt Virgin. He lived there for years after the war, but for the past twenty-six years has resided in South Waterford.

He was a member of the Methodist church and was noted for his musical gifts, and for many years was a choir leader. His pension of $17 had recently been increased to $24. He was a member the of Harry Rust Post, G. A. R. of Norway.

The funeral of comrade Kneeland was on April 24, at his late residence and was well attended by neighbors and G. A. R. comrades of the village. Mrs. Kneeland and one daughter were the only members of the family present.

Rev. Mr. Rumball officiated in the clerical ceremonies. Beautiful floral tributes adorned the casket the principal being a bouquet of 67 pinks, in token of the age of Mr. Kneeland, a number of fine roses, and geraniums by Lena York, ivy and geraniums by Mrs. Horace Smith and bouquets of mixed flowers by relatives, and vines by Mrs. Frank Noble. The interment was in Elmvale cemetery.

Mr. Kneeland is survived by a wife and two daughters, Mrs. Winnie McLaughtin of San Gabriel, Cal., and Mrs. Myrtie Phillips of Waterville; also two brothers, George of Lincoln, and Addison of Livermore.

Elsina York is confined to her room by sickness and under the care of a physician.

The weather and stiff south breeze caused the final break-up and disappearance of the ice from the lake April 30.

Mrs. Charles Haskell caught the first salmon from Echo lake this spring consisting of two specimens, about two pounds each.

Mrs. Charles Young, Sr., her daughter-in-law, daughter and several granddaughters, accompanied by other ladies and several gentlemen walked to the Flat on Sunday to church, in spite of deep mud and doubtful footing on the roadside. Mrs. Young is very young for a lady in her seventies.

Death of an Aged Citizen.

Francis Holden died Tuesday, April 23. Mr. Holden, who was the oldest man in town, took his bed April 2d, saying he should never get up again. There was no apparent trouble with him outside of a slight cold. He had lived long enough and seemed to lose all interest in things of this world, rarely speaking unless to ask the time of day. He slept the greater portion of the time, and there was no suffering except during his last day.

The funeral services were at his home on King street, Thursday, April 25th. Rev. T. Newport preached the sermon from the text, "Behold thou hast made my days as an hand breadth, and my age as nothing before thee." A mixed quartette rendered "Not Dead but Sleepeth," "There is a Stream," and "We Mourn for Household Voices Gone." The burial was in the Baptist cemetery at Otisfield.

Francis Holden was born in Otisfield, March 24, 1814, and was 93 years of age at time of his death. He was one of a large family of children. During his early manhood he was engaged in mill business, operating a saw mill on Crooked river and a saw and grist mill at East Otisfield. In 1858 he moved to Oxford, building the store and tenement now occupied by George Jones. Mr. Holden carried on a grocery and dry goods store many years. In 1883 he bought the Solon Rawson place on King street, where he lived until his death. Mr. Holden lived in Oxford nearly 50 years. His honesty and integrity were never questioned, and whatever he did was well done, and he enjoyed an enviable reputation for skill, ingenuity and good workmanship.

Francis Holden married Elizabeth Scribner. Her death occurred five years ago at the age of 83. Their only daughter, Adelaide, died 28 years ago. Mr. Holden is survived by a son, Dr. E. B. Holden, and one brother, James L. Holden, who is 76 years of age.

Annie Hazen was at home over Sunday.

Mrs. George Jones was in Lewiston, Saturday last.

Emerson Bennett and wife were in Norway, Saturday.

C. L. Farnham has been confined to the house for nearly three weeks with his old trouble, valvular heart disease. Chauncey is on the gain and will soon be seen out again.

Mrs. I. M. Keith, who has been confined to her room for many weeks, has so far recovered as to be able to leave the house, and accompanied by her niece, Miss McDonald, visited Lewiston, Saturday.

Rev. W. T. Chapman has moved to Woodfords and will not preach this year owing to ill health, and E. L. Farnsworth, a student in Bates college, will supply the pulpit at Oxford village and Welchville.

Harry Goodyear has launched his boat, which has been repaired, and is now propelled by a new 3 h. p. engine. Harry has taken several trial spins in the outlet, and thinks when the ice is out of the lake he can show the boys the way around.

Rev. Mr. Seleger, a former pastor of the Methodist church, was in town last week calling on friends. Mr. Seleger is located in Minnesota. He sailed Saturday for Germany to visit his parents. He intends to return in August and will be accompanied by his sister.

Daniel Whitehouse, who enjoys the distinction of being the oldest man in town, has overhauled his fishing tackle and is eagerly waiting for the ice to leave the lake. Daniel will be 86 in a short time, and always plans to make a day of it on the lake with a few chosen friends on the anniversary of his birthday.

The annual meeting of Oxford Cemetery Association was held on Wednesday evening, April 24th. C. F. Durrell was elected president; Fred Jordan, clerk; George J. Parrott, treasurer; John Robinson, George Hazen, James Cook, trustees; and George Morris, sexton. It was voted to hold meetings annually instead of biennially. It was voted to build a well in the cemetery for accommodation of those caring for lots, also to make other changes which would tend to improve the general appearance of the grounds.
